

Bullying

You were the person humiliated

I'm the person you hated

I'm the person who only after understood

Why up to me you stood

I thought we were better persons

Because you were the person on her own

 But I'm the person who was wrong

You are the person who was strong

  Enough to not follow us

Enough to be alone in the bus

I'm the person who caused those cries

And for that I apologise

But I'm also the person who knows that's too late

Because you're already desperate

Instead of ~~bullying~~ and then REGRETTING

You should  help  for then be PROUD
